JACKSON, MO., OCT. 8, 1901.

SENATOR CHANDLER, republican, of Vermont, takes an alarmist view of the trust situation. He says among other things: "The people have the remedy in their own hands, and if the suffrage is not overcome by corruption, fraud, or violence, success will attend the coming counter movement against the twentieth century attempt to revolutionize the laws of production and commerce by organizing huge combinations of wealth in the form of corporations, by abolishing competition, by oppressing consumers and laborers, by making the rich enormously richer, while the poor stand still in their poverty, and above all, by arousing the many poor voters in our republic into a dangerous crusade against the comparatively few rich voters, which will endanger the stability of the republic itself."—Wayland's Monthly.

The above contains a world of truth. Something must be done on the competition line, or the trusts and big corporations will swallow up all the small concerns.

Climate and Crop Bulletin

Of the Weather Bureau, Missouri Section, U. S. Department of Agriculture, for the Week Ending September 30, 1901.

The week just closed averaged decidedly warmer than usual throughout the state with a high percentage of sunshine. Quite heavy showers fell in a few of the southwestern counties on the 25th and 26th, and moderately heavy rains are reported in a few of the northern counties, but over much the greater portion of the state the rainfall, up to Saturday evening, was very light, many of the southeastern counties receiving none.

Special reports regarding fall seeding indicate that in a majority of the northern and western counties one-half to nine-tenths of the wheat crop has been sown, with the soil in excellent condition, and the early sown is up and looking fine, but in many of the east-central and southern counties the ground has been too dry and little seeding has been done. In some of the eastern and southern counties it is feared that wheat that has sprouted will perish unless rain comes soon. Reports indicate that with favorable weather conditions an unusually large acreage of wheat will be sown in most sections. Cotton is opening rapidly in the southeastern counties and picking continues under favorable conditions, but the crop is generally light. Late potatoes are reported a complete failure, except in a very few counties. Late apples have improved in many of the western and some of the eastern counties, and in a number of the principal apple growing counties a good crop will be gathered. In many localities, however, they are still falling badly.

A. E. HACKETT,
 Section Director.

County Correspondence.

DAISY.

Sept. 30.—Health is tolerably good.

Our little village was aroused Sunday morning about 4 o'clock by a steam whistle, and M. L. Morton, who has been out talking railroad to the people, jumped up out of bed, looked out of the window and saw an engine coming up. He ran back to Mrs. Morton and said: "Old woman, the railroad is here. Get out and wake the kids so they can see the first train at Daisy," and by the time Mr. Morton got out he saw an engine steaming before Fullbright's blacksmith shop with a well digging machine attached to it, but there was no one to be seen. After running all over the country he found out that H. F. Hahs had moved his well digging machine up to commence drilling at G. S. Kinders. A TRAMP.

GORDONVILLE.

Farmers sowing wheat. Apple thieves visited Araws' orchard a few days ago, but the report of a shotgun started a foot race that would have put a professional sprinter to shame. Mrs. Chris Gross presented Chris with a fine girl last Saturday night.

Mrs. Albert Kain is very sick at present writing.

The sale of stock and farm tools at Gottfried Gross' last Saturday proved that there is money in the country.

Cage Hunkstep is agent for the Life of McKinley.

Claus Kerstner is having a nice little house built just west of his residence in Gordonville.

Mr. Mull is preparing to build a new house on Main street.

Rev. Telle sold his little bay mare at the sale last Saturday. She brought $41.

Conrad Simmers bought a fine lot of hogs at the sale last Saturday. Coon knows a good thing when he sees it.

H. W. Bangert has gone into the goose business.

More houses for renting purposes are needed in our town.

AMOS AXLETREE.

FRUITLAND.

D. W. Anderson is slowly recovering, also Mrs. R. L. Caldwell.

Wheat is being sowed by some, others cannot on account of the dry weather.

The frost in this section did considerable damage to late peas and some sugar cane.

Sweet potatoes will be almost a failure.

Amos McLain's new house is being put up in a hurry.

J. M. Colver and E. H. Bruhl will each build in the near future. Let Mr. Houck come on with his railroad and we will have a town yet some day.

Russell Morton, our merchant, made a flying trip to St. Louis last week after goods.

John VanAmburg returned from St. Louis last week with a fine survey which he bought while he was in the city.

Some of our boys attended the ball game at Pocahontas last Sunday. Oh boys, don't do this on the Sabbath. SCRIBBLER.
